Certification of the Sufficiency of the Washington Convention Center Authority’s Projected Revenues and Excess Reserve to Meet Projected Operating and Debt Service Expenditures and Reserve Requirements for Fiscal Year 2004

March 23, 2004
March 24, 2004

The Honorable Linda W. Cropp, Chairman
Council of the District of Columbia
1350 Pennsylvania Ave, NW, Suite 504
Washington, D.C. 20004

Dear Chairman Cropp and Members of the Council of the District of Columbia:

Pursuant to Section 305 (b) of the “Washington Convention Center Authority Act of 1994,” (the “Act”), D.C. Law 10-188,\(^1\) as amended, D.C. Code, 2001 Ed. § 10-1203.05 (b), the District of Columbia Auditor shall prepare and deliver to the Mayor, Council, Chief Financial Officer of the District of Columbia, and the Chairman of the Washington Convention Center Authority (WCCA) a certification of the sufficiency of WCCA’s projected revenues and excess reserve of $77.1 million for the upcoming fiscal year to meet its projected expenditures and reserve requirements of $75 million. This certification review sets forth the Auditor’s determination of the sufficiency of WCCA’s projected revenues and excess reserve to meet its projected expenditures and reserve requirements for fiscal year 2004 from the following sources:

- taxes imposed pursuant to D.C. Code, 2001 Ed. § 47-2002.02 and § 47-2202.01, which are estimated by the Office of Tax and Revenue (OTR) and transferred to WCCA by the Mayor;
- WCCA’s projected operating revenues; and
- amounts in any reserve fund or account (other than debt service reserve fund or account for indebtedness) which exceed the required minimum balance for such fund or account, as certified by WCCA.

\(^1\) See Section 305 (b), the Washington Convention Center Authority Act of 1994, as amended, D.C. Law 10-188, D.C. Code, 2001 Ed. § 10-1203.05 (b).
By letter dated April 14, 2003, the District’s Chief Financial Officer (CFO) provided to WCCA a revised fiscal year 2004 dedicated tax revenue estimate of $58.9 million. In a letter dated February 27, 2004, the CFO again revised the fiscal year 2004 estimate to $62.1 million. For purposes of the sufficiency analysis, the Auditor used the February 2004 revised dedicated tax revenue estimate of $62.1 million.

Additionally, by letter dated February 18, 2004, WCCA’s Chief Financial Officer (WCCA CFO) provided the Auditor a revised certified “projected reserve fund excess of the required minimum balance for September 30, 2004, in the amount of $1.7 million.” The $1.7 million replaced an earlier reserve fund excess estimate of $17.8 million for fiscal year 2004 that was submitted to the Auditor on July 30, 2003. According to WCCA finance officials, the reduction is primarily due to a decrease in reserve balances within WCCA’s revenue stabilization account and operating and marketing reserve account as project/construction payments were issued to complete construction of the new convention center.

Based upon a comparative analysis of WCCA’s projected revenues and excess reserve, the Auditor has determined that WCCA’s projected revenues and excess reserve should be sufficient to cover its expenditures and reserve requirements for fiscal year 2004 barring any unforeseen events that would adversely impact revenues and expenditures.

The Auditor’s analysis indicated that WCCA’s projected revenues and excess reserve, as of September 30, 2004, are projected to exceed expenditures by approximately $2.1 million in fiscal year 2004. Therefore, the District of Columbia Auditor hereby certifies that WCCA’s projected fiscal year 2004 total revenues and reserve balance of $77.1 million should be sufficient to meet projected expenditures and reserve requirements of $75 million for fiscal year 2004.

OBJECTIVE, SCOPE, AND METHODOLOGY

The objective of this analysis was to determine whether projected dedicated tax revenues, operating revenue, and the excess reserve will be sufficient to meet WCCA’s projected operating and debt service expenditures and reserve requirements for fiscal year 2004.
In preparing this certification, the District of Columbia Auditor reviewed the Act and the "Washington Convention Center Authority Financing Amendment Act of 1998,"\(^2\) D.C. Law 12-142 which amended certain provisions of D.C. Law 10-188, D.C. Code, 2001 Ed. §§ 10-1201 - 10-1212. The Auditor also reviewed D.C. Code, 2001 Ed. § 47-2002.02 and § 47-2202.01 regarding the tax on hotel room charges and restaurant meals which is dedicated to WCCA.

The Auditor met with WCCA officials regarding operating revenues, excess reserve amounts, and expenditure projections for fiscal year 2004. The Auditor also held discussions with officials in the District’s Office of Research Analysis (ORA) concerning the fiscal year 2004 dedicated tax revenue estimate. The Auditor reviewed WCCA’s audited financial statements for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2002 and 2003 to determine the reasonableness of WCCA’s projections for revenues and expenditures as well as projected dedicated tax revenues to be received by WCCA in fiscal year 2004.

In determining WCCA’s projected operating and debt service expenditures and reserve requirements for fiscal year 2004, the Auditor relied, in part, upon financial information prepared by WCCA’s CFO. In determining the sufficiency of WCCA’s revenues for fiscal year 2004, the Auditor relied upon dedicated tax information provided by ORA and financial information provided by WCCA officials.

The Auditor notes that estimates are based on information that can, and often does, change rapidly thus resulting in revisions to the estimates after the Auditor’s certification. Consequently, the Auditor does not, and cannot, guarantee the validity of the estimates and only certifies, in whole or in part, that the dedicated tax revenue estimate, operating revenue and excess reserve estimate, at the time of certification, appeared sufficiently supported and achievable by WCCA. Additionally, the validity and accuracy of the Auditor’s sufficiency analysis and calculation are predicated upon the extent to which WCCA officials have fully disclosed and provided reliable and accurate information to the Auditor regarding WCCA’s operating expenses, debt service and marketing contract costs and any other expenses relevant to the Auditor’s sufficiency certification.

BACKGROUND

The Act effective September 28, 1994, as amended, established the Washington Convention Center Authority as an independent corporate instrumentality of the District of Columbia government to facilitate the construction of a new convention center and for various other purposes. Section 1202.02 (b) of the D.C. Code provides:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, the general purpose of the Authority is to acquire, construct, equip, maintain, and operate the New Convention Center, in whole or in part, directly or under contract, and engage in other activities as it deems appropriate to promote trade shows and conventions, or other events, closely related to activities of the New Convention Center, and to maintain and operate the Existing Convention Center until such time as the New Convention Center is completed and opened for operation.

WCCA is governed by a nine-member Board of Directors (Board). Currently, the Board consists of the CFO of the District of Columbia and another District government official designated by the Mayor. Both serve as ex-officio voting members with four-year terms. Additionally, seven public members (who must meet statutorily prescribed criteria) are appointed to four-year terms by the Mayor with the advice and consent of the Council of the District of Columbia. According to WCCA’s enabling legislation, two public Board members shall be individuals from the hospitality industry and organized labor, and the remaining five members must possess expertise in economic development, construction, tourism, municipal finance, or business finance. The daily management of WCCA is under the direction of a General Manager who is appointed by WCCA’s Board.

WCCA receives a portion of certain District sales and use taxes which are referred to as dedicated tax revenues. Presently, the dedicated tax revenues consist of 4.45% of the District’s 14.5% sales and use tax on hotel room charges, and 1% of the District’s 10% sales and use tax on restaurant meals, alcoholic beverages consumed on the premises, and automobile rental charges.

Dedicated taxes are collected through a lockbox arrangement established by the District CFO’s Office of the Treasurer with Wachovia Bank, formerly First Union Bank. The lockbox arrangement, which is governed by a collections agreement, was established for the collection, segregation, and the immediate transfer of dedicated taxes to the Trustee for WCCA. In accordance with the collections agreement, the following four accounts were established under the lockbox arrangement: (1) Transfer Account; (2) Exceptions Account; (3) WCCA Dedicated Account; and (4) the District Account. The District is required to keep the lockbox arrangement in place for as long as WCCA has outstanding bonds.

Tax receipts deposited into the WCCA Dedicated Account are assigned to, pledged to, and received daily by a trustee bank. The trustee bank then deposits these funds in the WCCA Revenue Account for WCCA’s use in accordance with the Master Trust Agreement.

In accordance with the Master Trust Agreement, WCCA was required to establish certain funds and sub-accounts, referred to as pledged funds, at the time the bonds were issued. (See Appendix I for the funds and accounts established in accordance with the Master Trust Agreement).
The establishment and funding of these various funds and sub-accounts ensure that monies are available for the repayment of bond principal and interest. The flow of dedicated taxes collected through the lockbox to other funds and accounts established by the Master Trust Agreement are presented in Appendix II.

WCCA is required to maintain minimum balances in the Operating and Marketing Reserve Account, Capital Renewal and Replacement Fund, and the Revenue Stabilization Account. Any balance remaining in the Operating and Marketing Reserve Account and the Revenue Stabilization Account, after deducting the minimum balance requirements, represents WCCA’s excess reserve.
Several other funds, such as the Rebate Fund and the Redemption Fund, although required to be established, have not yet been activated because they are not presently needed.

3 Bank of New York is the trustee bank. It is the depository for the bond proceeds and receives daily deposits of dedicated tax revenues from the WCCA Account.

4 The Master Trust Agreement provides for the deposit of dedicated tax revenue into the revenue fund and their subsequent transfer to other funds and accounts including the revenue stabilization account, operating and marketing fund, and others as outlined in the agreement.
RESULTS OF ANALYSIS

THE WASHINGTON CONVENTION CENTER AUTHORITY'S FISCAL YEAR 2004 PROJECTED REVENUES APPEAR SUFFICIENT TO COVER PROJECTED OPERATING AND DEBT SERVICE EXPENDITURES AND RESERVE REQUIREMENTS

WCCA’s fiscal year 2004 projected revenues from dedicated taxes and operating revenue, and projected excess amounts in reserve funds are estimated to total approximately $77.1 million. This includes $62.1 million in dedicated tax revenue, $13.3 million in operating revenue, and $1.7 million in excess reserve funds.

WCCA’s fiscal year 2004 projected operating and debt service expenditures, and reserve requirements are estimated to total approximately $73.3 million and include: $36.2 million for debt service, $7.2 million for payment to marketing agencies, and $29.9 million for operating expenditures. An additional $1.7 million is necessary to replenish the excess reserve estimate to its projected fiscal year 2004 ending balance. WCCA’s projected operating and debt service expenditures of $73.3 million and the additional $1.7 million necessary to increase the excess reserve estimate to its projected balance in fiscal year 2004 total $75 million.

WCCA’s operating expenditures for fiscal year 2003 totaled $31.1 million. The fiscal year 2003 operating expenditures were approximately $1.2 million, or 4%, higher than the projected fiscal year 2004 operating expenditures of $29.9 million. WCCA officials indicated that fiscal year 2003 included one-time only expenditures that were unique to that year and are not expected to be repeated in fiscal year 2004. According to WCCA officials, the fiscal year 2003 increase in expenditures resulted from increased building security, maintenance, utility and event related supplies in connection with WCCA simultaneously operating the old and new convention centers for approximately nine months in fiscal year 2003.

The Auditor’s analysis of the sufficiency of WCCA’s revenues and excess reserve estimate to cover projected operating and debt service expenditures and reserve requirements for fiscal year 2004 indicates that revenues appear sufficient to cover the expenditures. In fact, WCCA’s fiscal year

5 The dedicated tax estimate was revised by the District’s CFO during February 2004. The estimate which was $58.9 million, was increased by $3.2 million, or 5.4%. The revised estimate of $62.1 million reflects projected increased collections in the sales taxes imposed on restaurant meals and hotel room charges.
2004 revenues and excess reserve are projected to exceed expenditures by approximately $2.1 million. The use of the $2.1 million projected revenue and excess reserve is restricted in accordance with the Master Trust Agreement.6

Table I presents the sufficiency calculation of WCCA’s projected revenues and excess reserve to projected operating and debt service expenditures and reserve requirements for fiscal year 2004. The $1.7 million excess reserve estimate was provided by WCCA and is a critical component of the sufficiency calculation in Table I. According to WCCA officials, the $1.7 million excess reserve projection is primarily based on dedicated tax revenue estimates certified by OTR. Therefore, any future adjustments to the fiscal year 2004 dedicated tax revenue estimate will consequently result in adjustments to the fiscal year 2004 excess reserve projected by WCCA.

6In accordance with the provisions of the Master Trust Agreement, the dedicated tax receipts and all moneys and investment obligations are pledged as security for the bonds.

Sources: WCCA’s FY 2004 Budget Submission and Supporting documentation, and OTR’s fiscal year 2004 revised dedicated tax revenue estimate.

*WCCA’s excess reserve estimate reflects amounts deposited in excess of the respective minimum reserve balances in the Operating and Marketing Reserve Account and the Revenue Stabilization Account. The excess reserve estimate for FY 2003 was $70.8 million. However, the actual excess reserve balance for FY 2003 was a nominal $2,921.00. This reflected a decrease of approximately $70.7 million, or 99.9%, in FY 2003. See Appendix II for the sources and uses of the reserve funds after debt service requirements have been satisfied.

The excess reserve estimate for fiscal year 2004 is estimated to be $1.7 million. Because there was virtually no excess reserve balance at the close of fiscal year 2003, the $1.7 million represents an increase in the FY 2004 balance which will be funded from WCCA’s FY 2004 dedicated tax revenues.

7 D.C. Law 10-188, as amended, did not define “reserve requirements.” In the absence of a definition and for purposes of this sufficiency review, the Auditor interprets “reserve requirements” as the amounts necessary to establish and fund new reserves and to restore existing reserves, excluding reserves related to indebtedness, to their required minimum balances.
CONCLUSION AND CERTIFICATION

Based upon the Auditor's analysis of information provided by WCCA and ORA, as of the date of this certification, WCCA's total projected revenues and estimated excess reserve estimate of $77.1 million for fiscal year 2004 appeared sufficient to cover its projected operating and debt service expenditures and reserve requirements totaling $75 million.

According to the Auditor's calculation, WCCA's fiscal year 2004 estimated revenues and excess reserve are expected to exceed its projected expenditures and reserve requirements by $2.1 million. Therefore, the District of Columbia Auditor hereby certifies that, as of the date of this certification, WCCA's projected revenues and excess reserve should be sufficient to meet projected expenditures and reserve requirements for fiscal year 2004.

Respectfully submitted,

Deborah K. Nichols
District of Columbia Auditor
